Success Story:

Elisabeth Brevenson, CEO, Beepsend

Being geographically close to the European Union and economically rated among the ranks of other European nations, the Western Balkans are becoming a popular destination for investors from larger countries in Western Europe.

With customs free access to the 15% of the world market and its strong manufacturing sector with highly capable human capital, Serbia is one of the leading business locations in Balkans. Macedonia on the other hand, led to be recognised as Business Heaven in Europe in the last years due to many reforms and the government incentives for the foreign direct investment. Swefund is the development financier of Swedish state which is funding projects that creates sustainable business in world's most promising growth markets.

The event will present a great opportunity to learn more about Swedfund's financial support for establishments and investment opportunities in Serbia and Macedonia.

Warm welcome!
